

January, 2009

Agenda // DINING // EPICUREAN'S PARADISE

GRUB

If you're looking for a perfect weekend brunch spot with tasty comfort food in a homey environment, Grub is the place to be.

WHERE TO EAT

This little gem of a restaurant shines in the form of a classically cozy little house neatly tucked away in the backstreets of Hollywood. The number one must-try side dish is the Sweet and Sassy Thick Cut Bacon—the unofficial nickname owners Betty Fraser and Denise DeCarlo attributed to this down-home delicacy speaks to the addictive nature of its marinade. Ask about it. Their French toast is also a favorite.

Grub's recently acquired wine and beer license will make your experience even more fun. In addition to featuring two delicious sangrias and a wonderful lemon-basil Champagne cocktail, the beer and wine list is extensive yet surprisingly affordable. Grub is open weekdays 9 a.m.-3 p.m., and weekends 9 a.m.-2 p.m.

911 SEWARD ST., L.A. 323/461-FOOD

AMERICAN/BRUNCH. $ —PEARL BARRACLOUGH